Poudre Runs Through It Study/Action Work Group December 14, 2012 AGENDA

8:30-9:00am	Pre-Session Coffee/Conversation
9:00-9:30am	Welcome Back and Moving AlongMaryLou
	 Introductions from participants Brad Modesitt and George VarraMaryLou Please tell us (in no more than two minutes) 1) Who you are, a bit about your background 2) What you do (work and pertinent corollary efforts such as committees, boards and commissions) 3) What is your connection to the Poudre River that brings you to this table
	Now that we have set the foundation, here's our game plan going forward. Ready, set, go?
9:30—10:30am	 How the "Working River" is Administered and Managed The Life of a River Commissioner—George Varra How Water Rights Work—Dan Brown Urban Diversions—Susan Smolnik, Eric Reckentine, Shawn Hoff Ag Diversions—Dale Trowbridge, Steve Smith
10:3010:45am	Break
10:45am-12:00pm	How the "Working River" is Administered and Managed (continued)
12:00-12:45pm	Lunch
12:452:00	Case Study, including Dialogue Getting Things Done for Agriculture and the Environment on Wyoming's Little Snake River—Larry Hicks, Manager, Little Snake Water Conservation District, Representative Wyoming State Legislature
2:00—2:30	What is a Healthy River? A SAGE Definition—Brian Bledsoe, John Sanderson, John Bartholow Work Group Questions from November's Ecosystem Presentation
2:30—2:45pm	Break
2:45—3:45	Facilitated Group Dialogue about the article we read for homework on the cooperation to manage waters from Halligan Reservoir to bolster winter flows for fish in Phantom Canyon. • What led to cooperation? • What can we learn from this instance that could help us as we try to work together going forward? • Other examples of such multi-benefit cooperation
3:45-4:00pm	Wrap-up Comments/Observations & Homework—MaryLou
4:00-4:30pm	Post-Session Conversation